Abstract

An abstract is a brief, comprehensive summary of the contents of the paper. It should be dense with information, readable, well-organized, concise, and self-contained. It generally states the research question/topic, research methodology, research results and conclusion. Begin the Abstract on a new page after the title page. The Abstract should be one paragraph only in block form; do not indent the first sentence of the paragraph. Text should be in Times Roman 12-point font. Double line space the text. It should be between 150 and 250 words.
