Bringing stories and music to life

A Pinch of Imagination

Stories2music is a blend of flash fiction and short orchestral film music. There are two collections: The Edwardian Collection and the True Love Imagined Collection. They are mysteries, love stories, adventures, dreams/nightmares and drama.

A Flash of Fiction

Flash fiction is a short form of storytelling—usually between 75 to 1,000 words. It has one main character, vivid scenes, dense poetry-like prose, middle-starting plots, character-revealing actions and off-page endings. It is the ideal length for the stories, which run from 2-9 minutes.

A Dash of Music

The short film music is ideal for the stories. The music changes moods rapidly and is synchronized with the words in the story. The music enhances the narration by providing a rich emotional and imaginative experience, especially when sound effects are added. The music is an integral part of the storytelling.

“The Boy Who Was Loved by the Wind” is a Christian allegory set in the age of pirates about a boy who does not believe the Wind is real.

“Kate’s Dream” is a dream/nightmare where Kate finds herself in a mental asylum and is delivered by a mysterious man and his music.

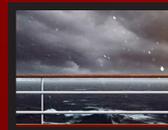

“The Shadow Dragon” is a dream where Kailey is being pursued by a fierce dragon. Can she reach the safety of the monastery ruins in time?

“The Plea” is an Edwardian mystery where Dr. Alexander receives a plea for help from a woman on a white horse in the moonlit manor grounds.

“Aurora’s Secret” is an Edwardian mystery where Kate meets a grieving daughter at a funeral and receives a mysterious key and secret.

“Reckless Grief” captures Katie’s grief over the loss of her parents as she sails on the S.S. St Louis to become a duchess of her father’s estate.

“The Duel” between Lord Treverton and Lord Van Arndt is the result of a stolen kiss on the dance floor with a captivating woman.
