On the Blog

After creating the new hybrid illustrated e-books this month, I've written a blog post about what they are, how I did them, and what I learned about this emerging genre of storytelling:

"A Multimodal Approach to Storytelling: Hybrid Illustrated e-Books as Companions to Audio Stories."

I also explored the concepts of writing for sound:

"Multimodal Audio Stories: Writing for Sound."

Coming Soon

In February, I will be writing about the concept of cinematic writing for novels, stories and audio stories.

Happy
New Year
